

Chief Powhatan's Address to Captain John Smith Questions

1. How does Chief Powhatan feel about Captain Smith?
 - a. Defeated.
 - b. Angry.
 - c. Respected.
 - d. Betrayed.
2. What has the previous relationship between the Powhatan and the English been?
 - a. The English provided the Powhatan with food and guns.
 - b. Their relationship has been equally beneficial.
 - c. The Powhatan did not want the English in their lands.
3. What does Chief Powhatan hope for their future relationship with the English?
 - a. He wants to fight to make the English leave.
 - b. He wants the Powhatan go away into the woods and live without goods the English provide.
 - c. It will be best for them both to live in peace trading food and goods.
4. "I wish their experience was equal to mine, and that your love to us might not be less than ours to you" indicates that
 - a. The beneficial relationship between them should continue.
 - b. The Powhatan wanted guns from the English.
 - c. The Powhatan do not want the English in their lands.
5. What will happen if conditions do not improve between them?
 - a. They will go to war to make the English leave.
 - b. Both Chief Powhatan and Captain Smith could be in danger.
 - c. They will trade with others.
6. What else might happen if conditions do not improve?
 - a. The Powhatan will no longer provide food for the English.
 - b. The English will provide food for the Powhatan.
 - c. The Powhatan will provide other goods for the English.

